

SEASON 3

D R A G R A C E H I G H

Drag Race High pits two schools automotive classes against each other in a classic build off for pride and the other teams ride! The competition starts with some good old-fashioned smack talk online and turns into an epic drag race car build-off in front of millions of fans online, television and live. The combination of hands-on hard work and school rivalry plays out on camera each episode. The teams personalities develop on camera while the show progresses and drama ensues. When school pride and their rides are on the line, anything can happen!
